Our Spanish phrase of the week:

Buenas tardes (good afternoon)

Home learning

Spellings to learn for next week are:

of said says are were

Phonics home learning will be uploaded to seesaw.

Maths-

Please can children practise with you doubles up to double 10 and their corresponding halves (eg half of 20, 18, 16 etc). Children have been using counters to share into 2 equal groups to find half.

Our learning:

In English we are starting our unit on non-fiction writing. Children have already been practising this in their Science work-writing fact files about endangered or vulnerable animals.

In Maths we have been looking at division by halving and will be solving some problems involving sharing. We will be starting some work on measurement too.
